Midterm course evaluation.

Please answer the following questions anonymously so that I can better appreciate how our course is going from your perspective, and how I might adjust things if necessary.

How have you felt about the overall design and pace of our course?

What aspects of our course have been effective in terms of your engagement and your learning?

Are there activities/ aspects of the course that could be more effective in terms of your engagement and your learning?

Have class handouts been helpful? Do you have any suggestions regarding them?

Has my feedback on your writing been helpful? (If you do not wish to have recorded comments at all, please don't hesitate to let me know in person.)

What are 1-2 goals you have for yourself in the second half of our course? (Skills/ learning/ ways of participating, etc.) Are there particular types of discussion/ class activities/ approaches to assignments that can help you achieve these goals?

Here or on the other side I welcome any other comments you may have.
