25th REUNION

Twenty-five years ago, as seniors at Carleton, we got to celebrate the College's 125th anniversary with a huge party, including (seemingly) the world's largest leaf pile. A few weeks later, we were buried under nearly three feet of snow during the Great Halloween Blizzard of 1991. As we dug out, our thoughts began to turn toward comps, graduation, and future endeavors. Just two weeks ago, Carleton marked its 150th birthday, and now our thoughts are beginning to turn toward welcoming each other back to campus for our 25th Reunion!

If you haven't done so already, please save the date: June 15-18, 2017. We're planning lots of awesome activities as part of our theme to Come As You Are / Connect / Reflect.

Come As You Are

- See who's coming to reunion and let us know that you're planning to attend.
- Tell us what you've been up to by filling out your bio book entry.

Connect

- Check out our Class of '92 25th Reunion page.
- If you're on Facebook, join our Class of '92 Facebook group, where 300 of our classmates are already sharing stories from college up through today.

Reflect

- Once you're a part of the Class of '92 Facebook group, ponder important questions like: Pumpkin Spice: An Abomination, Yes or No?
- Consider The Case for Carleton, a data-driven presentation discussing how alumnae/i financial support enables the College to provide an accessible world-class education--both when we were students and today.

Finally, after beginning to reconnect with Carleton and our classmates, please consider joining us in closing the stewardship loop by making a stretch gift in honor of our 25th Reunion.

We hope to see you next June!
